Hi,

Yes, I believe if I am not mistaken we do usually receive both the GRO and VOC samples in Teracore. The lab may run GRO from either Teracore kit or jar, it is solely up to you to decide which you would like to use.

We are just documenting for project history purposes.

Thank you!

Hi,

J4140 COC from 7/24 received is attached, please note we usually receive Teracore for GRO samples on this project but for these sample sets we did not.

Please confirm if we may run the GRO analysis from the 8oz. jars.

Thank you,

Jordan Hedvat
