Steven, the MS/MSD is associated with D3 and not D1, the CoC is incorrect.

Thank you,
Beau

Good Morning,
Please see the attached. Please be advised the COC does not indicate the same MS/MSD as the samples. The MS/MSD sample is actually on sample RE135D3-20201208 rather than RE135D1-20201208. I have included photos for your reference. Please confirm so we may proceed.

Regards,
